1. THOMAS PRITCHARD

Thomas Pritchard was probably born in Canterbury, Kent County England about 1568-1580. The surname was recorded then as Prickett, Pritchett, or Prichett. Recent research by Dr. Jerry O'Connell, descendant of John Prichard, son of Thomas Pritchard Sr. and Rachel Davis of Loudoun County, Virginia, indicates that he was one of three brothers who came to Virginia in 1610. Miles, Thomas, and Henry arrived in Jamestown on the "Starr."

According to his will and the Persons of Quality from the State Paper Department of Her Majesty's Public Record Office in England, Miles was 36 when he arrived, meaning that he was born in 1574. A fourth brother, William, arrived later and acquired land in Elizabeth City. The book "Virginia Immigrants and Adventurers, 1607-1635," page 582, states that Miles Prickett was sent by the Virginia Company to make salt. It is possible that he was among those Sir Thomas Dale sent to the Eastern Shore to establish a salt works on Smith Island. Miles Prickett returned to England, but on September 11, 1621, the Virginia Company sent him back to the colony as a salt maker until Allhollantide, November 11, 1622. On February 16, 1624, Miles Prickett was living in Elizabeth City and by Sept. 20, 1624 he was in possession of land adjacent to Robert Salford. In May 1625, he was credited with 150 acres in Elizabeth City. He identifies himself in his will dated November 30, 1626 as a baker living in the parish of Holy Cross near and without the walls of the City of Canterbury.

The parish was later absorbed by those nearby and the records were presumed lost in the London fire. They may be stored elsewhere. Miles left his brother William Prickett's two children ten pounds to be divided as they come to age, "which sum of money is now remaining in the hands of my brother Thomas." He left his land in Virginia to his brother John, who was then living in England.

The first Virginia census taken in 1623 contains three men named Thomas Prichard. One "living "in the main" arrived in 1620 on the "Abigail." This is the one previously believed to be our line. He was alive and well on Feb. 19, 1625 to testify in a case involving tobacco owned by Dr. Pott. The 1623 census lists two dead men named Thomas Prichard, one in Warwick County and the other in James City. The one from Warwick County left a son also named Thomas who became the Captain who petitioned the House of Burgesses from Denbigh Parish in Warwick in 1656. He died in 1690 without issue, so he is not ours.

This leaves the Thomas Prichard who died in James City (in the main) as ours. He died at Warrasqueak (the inlet near James City) some time after April 1623, but before February 16, 1624. He left a "wellborn" (of goodly heritage) son who was born in 1618 and died in Westmoreland County in 1670. Therefore, this is the true identity of the Thomas Pritchard/Prichard/Pritchett of our line.

The Virginia counties shifted and overlapped frequently in the early days. The Northumberland County Orders of 1652-1665 refer to Thomas Prichett, aged 37 years or thereabouts taking an oath for a court case. The age agrees with the age of the son born in 1618. A portion of Northumberland County became Westmoreland County in 1653. This is where Thomas died, so he may have remained on land that came under several jurisdictions, including Old Rappahannock and Richmond Counties. In 1657, "Thomas Pritchett and wife" received head rights from Gervase Dodson. Other deeds bearing their names are dated March 05, 1661 and December 28, 1668. In addition to land in Northumberland County, Thomas Prichett received Old Rappahannock County patent No. 5 for land on August 21, 1665 "on the north side of Dragon Swamp about three miles from Captain William Clayborne." His largest parcel of land, 300 acres in Washington Parish, Westmoreland County, was a patent sold by Philip Wadding on Dec. 28, 1668 described as "land lying by the great Road that goeth from the head of Popes Creek to Peperte Creek on the north side of said road that goeth from Rappahannock County to Popes Creeke on Potomack River." Thomas Pritchard's ownership of this land and his relationship to Christopher Pritchard are both proved on July 06, 1695 when Christopher refers to land owned by his father, Thomas Pritchett. This is the land that eventually was taken over by the nearby Muse family (Christopher Pritchett married Jane Muse, daughter of John Muse). Today it is owned by Corbett Muse who raises crops on it for Safeway.

It had been thought that Thomas served as a member of the House of Burgesses from Gloucester County VA in 1656, but it is more likely that this was the Thomas Pritchard who lived in Warwick County.

At a Court for Westmoreland County held May 31, 1692, several persons are sworn in as grand inquisitors for the body of the county for the present year: Christopher Pritchard, John Quesenbury, et al.

Christopher verifies his relationship to Thomas by the following deed July 06, 1695: "Know all men by these present that I, Christopher Pritchett, son and heir of Thomas Pritchett of the County of Westmoreland, have and do hereby alein, bargain, sell, enfieoff, and confirm all my right title and interest of the within patent unto Humphrey Quesenbury of the County aforesaid..."

At a Richmond County court of November 04, 1713, Thomas Field bound himself to serve Christopher Pritchard until he was 21 years of age, being fifteen on September 10, 1712. Christopher agrees to teach him to read and write and the trade of carpenter and cooper.

At a Richmond County Court of October 01, 1718, Christopher is appointed Surveyor of the highway from Trents plantation to Thomas Pritchards and order that he forthwith clear the same.

At a King George County court of November 01, 1728, John Pritchett, a son of Thomas Pritchett, was ordered to serve Christopher until he was 21 years old. John was Christopher's grandson. Christopher's will is dated June 02, 1730.

Thomas Pritchard, a son of Christopher and Sarah (Gollothan) Pritchard, was born about 1740 and died in Allegheny County MD in 1811. He married Rachel Davis in Loudoun County VA in 1759. Rachel, was born in Loudoun County about 1745 to a family that emigrated from Cardigan, Wales. She died in Allegheny County MD after Jun 08, 1813.
Because Thomas was absent from the Loudoun County tax rolls for three years during the war, some suggest he served in the American Revolution. A Thomas Pritchard appears on at least three lists of Virginians who served. No proof of his service.
A carpenter and mason, he made the railings for the Loudoun County Court House and built several stone houses standing today in Leesburg. He was quite prosperous and owned slaves Hazard, Dick and Will. He also had at least one run away apprentice, John Bryan. Thomas was in and out of court for a number of cases involving payment for his services as a joiner (skilled carpenter).
March 25, 1794 Thomas and Rachel sold William Ellzey 216 acres of land in Loudoun County VA that had been granted to his father Christopher Pritchard August 27, 1741 by Lord Fairfax. They moved to Allegany County MD that year.

Eleanor Pritchard, a daughter of Thomas and Rachel (Davis) Pritchard, was born about 1764 in Loudoun County VA and died before April 1825 in Marion County VA (WV). She married Richard Price about 1804. He was born February 17, 1757 in Fairfax County VA and died July 22, 1834 in Marion County VA (WV). Richard Price served the Colonies in the American Revolution. His pension is No. 12067. According to service records and his pension, he enlisted at Leesburg, VA and served from January 1777 for one year as a private under Captain Payton Harrison and Colonel Spottswood. In 1780. he spend two months under Captain Francis Russell, and in May 1781, he served under Captain Cleveland and Colonel Matthews. In 1781, he guarded prisoners from General Cornwallis' captured Army. During his service, he was engaged in the battles of Brandywine and Germantown and the skirmish at Bacon's branch. In 1794, he moved to Monongalia County, VA. Earlier, he had married his first wife, Nancy Dallas, said to be of the same line as George M. Dallas, Vice-President under James Polk. She died in 1800. It is generally assumed that Nancy Dallas was the mother of the four oldest children and Eleanor Pritchard was mother of the two youngest.

Richard married the third time in Monongalia County. His new wife, Elizabeth Arnett, was the daughter of Andrew Arnett. William Price, son of Richard, was the administrator of his estate. The inventory and appraisement was made in September 1834 and the final settlement recorded on October 18, 1839.

Elizabeth Pritchard, a daughter of Thomas and Rachel (Davis) Pritchard, was born in Loudoun County VA about 1775 and died in Marion County VA (WV) after 1849. She married John Smith January 09, 1798 in Allegany County MD. John, a son of John Smith, died about 1801.

Elizabeth married George Furbee about 1802 in Allegany County. George, a son of Caleb and Sarah (Bowers) Furbee, was born about 1777 in Delaware, and died May 10, 1849 in Marion County VA.

George Furbee signed his will April 03, 1849. At the January Court term of 1850, Elizabeth Furbee, Jeremiah Beatty, her attorney and son-in-law, and William Snodgrass appeared to straighten out some of the legal problems. When examined by the court, Beatty gave the following evidence: "I wrote this will as the old man lay dying. Furbee was the second husband of Elizabeth Furbee, who had children by her first husband, whose name was Smith. Thomas Smith, Pritchard Smith, and Margaret Millan are children of Elizabeth Furbee by her first husband. At the time that I wrote the first will, Elizabeth Furbee urged the old man very hard to give her children by her first husband a part of his property. Some time before I wrote the last paper...I was informed by Alpheus Millan, the son of Margaret Millan, that Mr. Furbee intended to see me and he thought it likely Mr. Furbee wanted to make some alterations in his will. I then went up to see him and was told by (a neighbor) that it was not the old gentleman who wanted alterations made in the will, but it was the old lady, his wife, who desired the(m). I then went on up to Mr. Furbee to see if he wanted any alterations made and he said no."

George Furbee entered the Continental army and served in the Battle of Brandywine and other engagements. After the close of the Revolution, he went to the Northwest Territory and settled on what was to become the site of Columbus, Ohio. He remained there until the early 1800s when he went to Monongalia County VA, cleared a large farm near the Monongahela River, and formed one of the pioneer settlements of Northwestern Virginia.

William Pritchard, son of Thomas Pritchard Sr. and Rachel Davis, was born December 17, 1777 in Loudoun Co VA and died April 1866 in Marion County, WV.

William Pritchard married Hannah Meredith, daughter of Davis Meredith, husband of Nancy Anne Pritchard.

Incorrect information about William's parentage appeared on DAR applications for a number of years. When the DAR was first founded, untrained genealogists found a bonanza in supplying family histories based on hearsay. Consequently, a number of early members from Marion County WV were admitted to the DAR based on the wrongful belief that William was the son of a Revolutionary War soldier named Christopher William Pritchard who was killed in Maryland. Although the patriot may have been the brother of Thomas Pritchard Sr. (14), no documentation has been found confirming the relationship because Prince William Virginia court records were lost. Recently, the DAR discovered the error and has barred all future applications based on this bogus line. However, those who joined on that line are permitted to retain membership.

Fortunately, voluminous Meredith family research by Jack Meredith of Wake Forest University proves Davis Meredith's relationship as husband to Amelia Knotts, who was incorrectly cited as the mother of William Pritchard in the DAR applications. Davis and Amelia Knotts Meredith had two children, Absalom and Hannah, born in Delaware in 1783 and 1785 respectively. After her death, he married Elizabeth, not Elizabeth Howell of Loudoun County, as some genealogies list.

That Elizabeth married Benjamin Meredith and moved to Belmont County, OH. Davis and Elizabeth Meredith lived for several years in Fayette County, PA where they had two children, Rebecca in 1788 and Nuw (Nue) in 1792. Davis Meredith married for the third time Nancy Anne Pritchard (see below).

William Pritchard and Hannah Meredith were married by the Reverend John W. Patterson February 21, 1805 in Monongalia County. They lived in Allegany County MD until about 1815 before settling in the area known today as Paw Paw District, Marion County, WV. The 't' was still present in his marriage application signature, but he dropped it by 1813, as did his brother John. Hannah was the daughter of Davis Meredith and his first wife, Amelia Knotts.

William was the administrator in 1813 of the estate of Thomas Pritchard, Sr. in Maryland. During the process, he purchased the child's portion from each of the other heirs, his siblings. It was common in both Virginia and Maryland for the youngest son to opt for the home plantation, the older sons having already received their inheritance at the time they left home and moved westward, or married. The George Furbay Will, recorded in Marion County, Virginia Will Book I, pp. 114-128 contains testimony by several relatives including William Pritchard, on behalf of Furbay's widow, Elizabeth Pritchard Furbay.

On pages 124 and 125 of the Will Book, William Pritchard is quoted as saying, "I have been acquainted with George Furbee (sic) for upwards of thirty years...The old man Furbee's wife is my sister."

In 1814, William Prichard moved to a portion of Monongalia County, Virginia that later became Marion County. He died there in April 1866 and is buried along with his son Absalom in the Asbie Rice Cemetery near Chunk's Run. William Pritchard is listed in the Allegany County, MD census of 1810 and in those of Monongalia County, VA in 1820, 1830, and 1840. Hannah does not appear in the 1830 census, indicating that she died between 1827 and 1830. William is living in Marion County in 1850 and 1860, listed at ages 70 and 82, respectively. He was active in civic affairs, attested by his signature on many petitions.

Nancy Anne Pritchard, a daughter of Thomas and Rachel (Davis) Pritchard, was born about 1780 and died in Monongalia County VA between 1850 and 1860. She married Davis Meredith in Monongalia County VA November 09, 1800. Davis, a son of Job and Rebecca Lydia (Davis) Meredith, was born about 1750 in Kent County DE, and died in Monongalia County VA in 1825.

Davis's first wife was Amelia Knotts and his second was Elisabeth ----.

War Department Records show that Davis Meredith served in the Second Corps, Delaware Regiment under Colonel Henry Neill in the American Revolution.

Davis first married Amelia Knotts in Kent County, DE. They were living there when they signed a deed with his father Job.

Davis was enumerated in the 1790 Federal census in Fayette County PA. He had probably married Elizabeth ---- by that time. He witnessed the will of Joshua Deweese in Fayette County December 04, 1791. Davis then appeared on January 04, 1792 to declare that he had witnessed the will which was being offered for probate.

By 1796. Davis was living in Monongalia County, VA and serving on the Fall term of the Grand Jury. He bought 400 acres on Stacks Run on September 22, 1796 from John and Ann Evans and William and Ruth Pettyjohn for 150 pounds which he and his wife Elizabeth sold for 175 pounds to James Smallwood Wilson on February 13, 1798.

Ann Pritchard Meredith was also called Ann Nancy or Nancy Ann. Davis and Ann lived on a 150 acre tract near Robinson's Run on Paw Paw which he bought from Fleming and Christina Jones on July 08, 1801.

Davis Meredith's will was dated May 24, 1825 and was probated at the August term of Court at Morgantown, WV.

Mary Pritchard, a daughter of Thomas and Rachel (Davis) Pritchard, was born in Loudoun County VA about 1782, and died before 1850 in Marion County VA. A marriage bond between Mary and Charles Roberts is dated March 04, 1799 in Loudoun County. When the rest of the family moved to Maryland, she may have stayed behind to plan for the wedding. Robert Smarr, the son of Sarah Pritchard's first husband, gives oath on the bond as to Mary's age, which was 17. A record of the actual marriage has not been located. Therefore, it is possible that the marriage never took place because the Allegany County records list Mary using her maiden name when she married John Parker, a widower.

Mary married John Parker, December 22, 1804 in Westernport, Allegany County MD. John was born about 1770 and died in December 1840 in Monongalia County VA. His first wife was Elisabeth Neptune.

The disparity in their ages and the swiftness of his death following their marriage further compounds the curious citation in the 1880 Marion County Census naming Eliza as the mother of Ann Eliza Parker Arnett.

Mary Pritchard, a daughter of Thomas and Mary Moody Pritchard, was born in VA September 26, 1812 or 1813 and died in OH. She married William Snodgrass Jr. about 1828 in present day Ritchie County WV. William, a son of William and Catherine (Yost) Snodgrass, was born in 1783 and died in Ritchie County WV in 1879. There was a question as to whether her mother was Nancy Tichenal or Mary Moody. Nancy died before the marriage of Thomas and Mary in October 24, 1812. Peter Pritchard's description of her as his half-sister confirms that she was Mary's daughter.
